

President's Message—SFC

Fellow SWA Members—

Things are feeling a bit more like normal as the virus fades into the background. But it's never too far in the background. Masks are now optional in our gallery. We are now having our artist receptions in person. So come on down! Check out our exhibits, come to a reception, attend a demo, attend a workshop. Speaking of which, we have some excellent workshops lined up for you. Deborah Shea will be doing a pastel workshop on June 25th and 26th, Yvette Head will be doing an abstract acrylic workshop on September 24th and 25th, and Nancy Crookston will be doing an oil workshop on November 5th and 6th. For more information, go to the Society of West-Coast Artists website (www.societyofwest-coartists.com).

Our next show is our Annual, but before that we currently have an excellent show for April. The artists reception for this show is on April 9th. If you have an entry in the show and don't have your Signature Award yet, please save your acceptance email from EntryThingy so you can include it in your application in the future.

Following the April exhibit, we have the San Mateo School District exhibit from April 25th through May 10th. It's always fun to see the artwork of the young artists who exhibit so do take a look when you get the chance.

Our April 16th demo artist is Nancy Crookston. She will be doing a portrait in oil. Our May demo artist is yet to be determined. Hopefully, by the time you read this we will have an artist lined up. For June we have Inna Cherneykina doing a still life in oil with sunflowers. All demonstrations start at 1:00 pm. Check our website for the link to all of our demos.

If you need any help using EntryThingy to enter your paintings, please let us know at the email below.

Please stay healthy and safe.

Inna Cherneykina

Oil Still Life with Sunflowers

Inna Cherneykina was born in Sergiev Posad, Russia. She discovered her passion for drawing and painting in early years by doing portraits of her friends and family. At the age of 10, she was accepted to the Sergiev Posad Art School. She attended Moscow Art University for a five years masters program of Art and Graphics. That led to her move to California in 1997 to work as a computer game artist.

In 2007 Inna started devoting more time to painting and took a class with Jim Smyth at the College of San Mateo and painted plein air with Brigitte Curt. Jim and Brigitte both share Inna's love for Russian Impressionism Paintings and encourage her to incorporate this style even deeper into her work.

Inna studied under famous American-Armenian artist Ovanes Berberian, whose passion for colors made a huge influence on Inna's vision of art and her love for still life painting.

Inna's work has appeared in many juried shows. She has had several solo exhibitions. She is a Signature member of AIS, NOAPS, CPAP and Artist Member of California Art Club

President’s Message–SJVC

Members,

I can’t thank our members enough for their support and participation through the year. I’ve depended on your ideas and assistance throughout our programs. I do have to give a special thanks to Denise McGill, SWA Secretary, for her dedication of past few years to our organization. Her work makes my job easier.

The San Joaquin Valley Chapter is opening our Member’s Show at the Fresno City Hall. We’ll be celebrating our exhibit during Arthop on Thursday, April 7th. I hope you’ll be there to celebrate with us.

On Saturday, March 26th, our members were provided a demonstration by Deborah Pepin. Deborah is an incredibly talented pastelist, who works in Plein Air, her studio and with other pastel artists. She described how she searches for locations, sketches, and photographs these areas as she prepares her painting studies. Just watching Deborah’s painting was instructive and a pleasure. She has a wonderful approach with color and drawing questions from her audience. Thank you Deborah, for a wonderful art demonstration.

Thank you all, for your contributions to the Arts and to the Society of West-Coast Artists.

Jesus Sepulveda
SJVC President
